THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

Was the legitimate result of our life and work as a people. It was in response to the spirit and demand of the age in which we were born and through which we have lived, and is a necessity in the plans and energies of our life to-day. Through it we study our church life, and through it we direct our energies. To know what the Christian Church is doing we must know what the American Christian Convention is doing, and that service which tells most for our cause is the service we render through the channels adopted and directed by this quadrennial meeting of the church in general council.

The spirit and purpose of the Convention are non-sectarian, and its work is to carry forward the Gospel of Jesus Christ, unfettered by ecclesiasticism and sectarian bigotry. The constitution definitely declares that the object of the Convention shall be to maintain and promote the Charitable, Religious, Missionary, Educational and Publishing enterprises of the religious body known as Christian. Its missionary and church-extension interests are rapidly developing and materializing in city missions, home and foreign laborers, church buildings, and increased contributions.

Independent churches are invited to co operate with the Convention in carrying forward the gospel untrammelled by creeds and unfettered by religious bigotry. Persons so located as not to be able to contribute with churches, are requested to remember the Convention collections with individual contributions.

J. F. BURNETT, Sec'y. A. C. C.

J. N. Hess, Publishing Agent, Dayton, Ohio:

DEAR BROTHER:—In reply to your inquiry as to whether or not the Board of Trustees of the Christian Publishing Association had any report to make that in turn will be embodied in the "Annual" will state that so far as I know the Board will not be able to make a full or detailed report of the true condition of the C. P. A. until after its annual meeting which will be held during the first week in January, 1904, commencing at 9 A. M., on Thursday, January 7, 1904.

The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees have held three meetings during the year which it is hoped will result in good to the association. Acting upon the admonition of another, that it had no time to lose, it has thought best to take its time in guarding and promoting the best interests of the association in which such a large constituency is very properly and deeply interested. I remain, essings, cannot be tabulated or told by cold figures. But no Christian can meditate for a few minutes on the figures above—the number of souls converted and the number of churches and Sunday-schools organized—without being constrained to say, “A great work has been done;” and especially for the money expended and the workers employed.

OTHER WORK.

The church at Muncie, Indiana,—which is a large measure the fruit of home mission work, having been helped by mission funds from its commencement until the last year—is completed and dedicated a most excellent church house. The church at Danville, Illinois, also aided by mission funds, has during the year rebuilt and dedicated their church house.

Our mission churches at Petersburg, N. Y., Defiance, Ohio, Lewistown, Ill., Des Moines, Iowa, and Lamberts Point, Va., have repaired their church buildings.

New church houses are in process of construction this year at the following home mission points: Toronto, Can., Lima, Ohio, Greensboro, N. C., Columbus, Ga., and Rifle, Colo.

Three new churches, and a Christian Conference were organized during the past year by our missionaries in North Dakota. A new missionary, Rev. Horace Mann, was sent to Colorado. His work is opening up grandly, with a good prospect for a new church house within the present year. A new missionary, Rev. H. G. Cowan, has just been sent and has entered upon his work in Montana. Negotiations are now being made with good prospect of locating a missionary and commencing work at New London, Wis., in co-operation with the Wisconsin Christian Conference. Appropriations are made to assist the work this year in Montana, (Rev. H. G. Cowan); North Dakota, (Rev. Robert Harris and Rev. Vina B. Wilgus); Colorado, (Rev. Horace Mann); Defiance, Ohio; Bangor, Maine; Indianapolis, Ind.; Elkhart, Ind.; Lewistown, Ill.; Northern Kansas Conference; Columbus, Ga.; Belvidere, Vt.; Washington, (H. Fry); Wesley Chapel, N. C.; North Missouri Conference; Ferguson, Iowa; Western Canada; Lamberts Point, Va.;

Toronto, Canada; Binghamton, N. Y.; Des Moines, Iowa; Southern Ohio Conference; Columbus, Ohio; Greensboro, N. C.; Portsmouth, Va.; Newport News (East End) Va.; Iowa State Field Secretary; Wisconsin; Newark, N. Y.; Lima, Ohio.

Of these points thirteen are good-sized cities and four are state or provincial capitals.

There were not funds sufficient to grant all requests, nor to appropriate to some worthy points as much as they really needed. From several points requests came to the Board to send them a man, a suitable man! Never in the history of the Christians, we believe, has there been a greater demand for able, well qualified, spiritually minded ministers; and this for pastors for home churches; new home mission fields, and for foreign fields.

THE FOREIGN FIELD.

Miss Penrod and Mr. and Mrs. Fry completed their furlough vacations and returned to the field; the former about the middle of the year and the latter about the close of the year. Prof. Woodworth and Miss Penrod are stationed at Tokio. Mr. Woodworth has charge of the Mission Training School, (so far he has been doing evangelistic work beside.) This work is very essential—securing and training native pastors, evangelists and Bible women. Miss Penrod, in addition to her evangelistic and Bible class work, is rendering some assistance in the Training School work, especially with those training for Bible women work. At last report they had three theological students and two Bible woman students. Those who have knowledge of the difficulty of securing suitable native Christians—persons who have the natural talents, and who seem called of God—for such work, feel gratified at the success in securing that number during the first year of the school.

Mr. Woodworth and Miss Penrod have the charge of the Southern field, including the Training School and the churches at Tokio and Oji and their out-stations.

Mr. McCord and Miss True have charge of the Northern field, which is the larger field having five organized churches and some fifteen out-stations. Mr. McCord and family are located at Sendai, Miss True with her Bible woman at Ishinomaki. In addition to the general supervision of the churches and native pastors of the Northern field, considerable travel, (his field covers territory some 70 miles in length, with a width—well, just as wide as they are capable of touching, with much room beyond that they have neither time nor strength to touch), and evangelistic and Bible class work, he has the work of the treasurer of the Japan Mission, and besides does some teaching in the Government schools of Ichinoseki. All the missionaries, in addition, are still studying the language. Busy? All busy? Well, a Christian with enough soul in him to love God and humanity can't be otherwise than busy while in the midst of heathenism! We have seen it with our own eyes and felt it with our own heart.

Mr. and Mrs. Fry, who have just returned to the field, are expected to open a new station soon, perhaps at Utsunomiya. This will involve the building of a new Mission Home at as early date as possible; for which work funds are now being collected.

PORTO RICO.

Our missionaries in Porto Rico have pushed their work with commendable energy. The field of their operations has expanded until it already includes fifteen points where services have been held with greater or less frequency, about as much, it would seem, as can be compassed by the force on the field, the most of the traveling being done by Brethren Barrett and White. The Lord has graciously raised up as helpers in our Porto Rican work, first a Spanish Christian brother as interpreter, language teacher and helper in the meetings. Then almost as soon as our missionaries were able to use the language, he raised up for us a young native Christian, Rafael Hernandez, of fair education and good ability as a preacher. This brother is rendering very efficient service, which is well received by the natives. He is now employed as one of our working force.

During the past year two churches have been organized, one at Ponce and one at Salinas. There are converts at some of the out-stations, the number of which we hope may increase and grow into other churches. With large hope we look forward to the day when we may have a Christian Conference in Porto Rico, as we now have one in Japan.

Our field of operation includes Ponce, the second largest city on the Island, and reaching eastward about forty miles, embraces the richest sugar growing section on the Island, and is thickly populated. A line of railroad which is to run thro the main points of our work, and which will give easy access to the out points, is in process of construction. We have a most excellent field and we should work it well, but to do this as it should be done we should have a few more missionaries on the field, at least for a few more years—we cannot tell yet just how long—when we hope, many of them might be sent on to other Spanish-speaking people. One new lady missionary is now under appointment to go as soon as the necessary means shall be provided.

Another pressing need for this field, A VERY PERSENT NEED, is funds with which to secure grounds and erect a church house in Ponce, the headquarters for our work on the Island. For this also funds are now being gathered.

The 18th day of January, 1904, is just three years since our first missionaries landed, and just two years since our second missionaries landed, in Port Rico, and they have all had to acquire a working knowledge of the language since going. The following are the present statistics of the work:

MISSIONARY CONFERENCES.

A new and encouraging forward step was taken the last year by the holding of a "New England Missionary Conference," at Haverhill, Mass., the latter part of October under the auspices of the Woman's Boards. The conference was ably conducted, was instructive, and in spirit and fellowship and intense missionary interest, was a decided success. It will doubtless bear fruit in enlarged missionary contributions, and lead to the holding of other similar conferences.

The General Mission Board is planning to hold another International Missionary Conference next autumn, much on the plan of the Piqua Conference three years ago. In spiritual power and helpful influence in the enlargement of Christ's kingdom in the world, that conference ought to be still better than any yet held by the Christians. With the prayers and hearty co-operation of the brotherhood it may be so.

FIELD SECRETARY.

As an agency to assist in the enlargement of our missionary work the Mission Board has placed Rev. William Reiley in the field as a "Mission Field Secretary." The duties of the Field Secretary, as outlined by the Board, are as follows:

To gather funds for the prosecution of the general missionary work of the Christian Church, or such special objects as may be deemed needful; to labor to awaken and increase missionary sentiment among our people by visiting churches and individuals, by promoting and assisting in missionary meetings and conferences, by personal solicitation and conversation, and by public addresses; to travel among our churches and annual conferences in prosecution of the above named work; to disseminate missionary information and literature; to canvass for and receive subscriptions to The Christian Missionary; to watch for desirable candidates for our Mission fields, and in general to strengthen the cause of the Christians and their missionary enterprises.

We bespeak for the Field Secretary, on the part of our pastors and churches, that they receive him cordially and co-operate with him cheerfully; the blessing will then be mutual—with them and the cause which he represents.

MISSION LITERATURE.

More missionary tracts and leaflets, and more copies of The Christian Missionary (the official missionary organ of the denomination) were circulated, and more missionary matter was published in our other denominational papers the past year than during any previous year in the history of the denomination, all of which is prophetic of a still larger growth this year.

Children's Day Programs are to be published this year from the Mission Rooms as usual; but differing from heretofore, they are to be furnished free to those who desire to use them in the interest of gathering funds for missionary work.

FINANCIAL.

The total receipts to the mission treasury for all lines of missionary work the past year were $17,802.48, nearly one thousand dollars increase over the preceding year. The whole church, and every member of it, ought to be so far dissatisfied with the amount of increase last year that they will resolve to enlarge the increase this year. The THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLAR mark certainly ought to be reached by the end of 1904.

There is "yet much land to be possessed" in our country; about half of the inhabitants of the world are yet unevangelized; and the Savior's command still maintains, to "Go into all the world, and preach the gospel unto every creature."

"Missions was God's thought, and the salvation of man His purpose, which He manifested in sending His own Son from heaven to earth, the grandest foreign missionary the world ever beheld."

"For the missionary pastor and church a dying world is waiting."

COUNTY LINE CHRISTIAN CHURCH, near Monterey, Indiana. Dedicated November 29, 1903.

The above church was built some years ago by the people, and was not owned or controlled by any denomination, and never made any progress, and finally was abandoned and let go to wreck. During the past summer some of the citizens of the neighborhood appealed to Bro. Wm. Feese, a resident of the community and a member of the Northwestern Christian Conference, to take hold of the work and see if he could not rescue the building from complete ruin. He consented, and with indefatigable work and much personal sacrifice he succeeded in having the house remodeled and furnished, and also organized a small Christian Church. November 28, 1903, he called the writer and Rev. Wm. Heflin to his aid, and we succeeded in raising the requisite amount, viz.: $131.00 to clear the house of indebtedness, and proceeded to dedicate the same.

Too much credit cannot be given Brother Feese for his untiring efforts in bringing about such glorious results. The outlook for the church is very bright.

Jacob Burkholder.

Brother Burkholder's action has done much to inspire the spirit of Christian giving in our conference, and while we honor him for his gift we are still more grateful for the instructive lesson which his action carries with it. The Christian Conference of Ontario is a permanent and growing force in our fair country. Here is a business man who has invested this generous gift in and for our cause. It is this fact that makes our hearts beat high with hope. And now we must act the more carefully, righteously and earnestly, that others, seeing opportunities for Christian investment, may go and do likewise.

"There is nothing new under the sun," said Solomon. However we may regard this opinion of the wise man of old, we are abundantly convinced that there are some things that never grow old. The cup of water to refresh the thirsty, bread to strengthen the faint, the kindly word to the oppressed—all these lie in the path of the Christian's heavenward way.

But we are understanding more of the Christ spirit and the Christ purpose in these latter days. Men are learning that it is their privilege to confer blessings, not only on their fellows, but on those that are to follow them. Life will always be arduous, strenuous, complex and conflicting. What better can we do than leave behind us something that will show the current and purpose of an earthly pilgrimage. We hand our work back to God at life's sunset. In his wise planning he will take care of it, and some worthy Christian will be appointed to carry it forward. It is Christianity Christlikeness that gives fibre and character to a neighborhood. The church is the center from which good influences and godly examples work out to uplift a community. Those who provide a temple for the Lord and his people are wisely building up towers of strength which will in future years be strongholds of Christianity and ever overflowing streams which shall sweeten the lives and inspire men and women to fear and honor God.

It is a goodly thing which Brother Jacob Burkholder has done in the town of Stouffville. The work, of which the Congregational Church has in that place been so long the worthy center, will go on. The light shall not be removed from the sanctuary. We think our Congregationalists friends will gladly join hands with us in the Christian work and effort, for which there is an opportunity in that section of the town.—Christian Vanguard.

An old lady who at the best was certainly not very musical, attended church one morning a little while ago. During the service an anthem was sung by the choir, during which a certain Mr. Wood rendered a solo. When returning home, the old lady remarked to a friend:

"Dear, dear! What a mess they made of that anthem, to be sure. Why, if it had not been for Mr. Wood they would have broken down entirely in one part." — London Standard.

ALEXANDER MACKENZIE,
Pastor Parma and Greece Christian Church.

Partial Report of Building Committee of Parma and Greece Church.

READ BY MR. H. D. ROWLEY.

In the brief report I shall attempt to make at this time, I want you to go back with me to a day in August of 1834, nearly seventy years ago; or to be correct, seventy years ago the 23d day of August next. Taken from our church record we have the following:

At a meeting of the brethren and sisters friendly to liberal Christianity, convened at the school house in school district number seven, Parma; Elder Joel Doubleday and Elder William Blake, of Clarkson, were present. After each person present had expressed their feelings and Christian experience, the following persons agreed to walk together in bonds of Christian love and union, taking the Scriptures of truth for their only rule of faith and practice, and, we pray that God be with us. Parma, August 23d, 1834.

Signed:—James B. Deyo, Samuel D. Deyo, Peter Wisner, James Chase, Isaac Chase, Jr., Joseph Hooper, Ruth L. Deyo, Peter S. Olmstead, Petsy Ann Wisner, Elizabeth Chase, Robey Hicks, Lucy Chase, Mary Deyo, Sarah Hubbard.

Now to show the varied experiences these precious few passed through, all of whom have gone to their reward with the exception of one deacon, James Chase, one of the sturdy oaks and faithful ones of this little band, and who is with us at this time, I will read to you an account of several of their fellowship meetings, showing that trying times and blessed experiences were passed through by them very much the same as with us at the present time.

February 2d, 1839.—Met at the usual place for fellowship meeting; several had dark clouds over their minds, but before the meeting closed the clouds were removed and victory turned Zionward. Isaac Chase, Church Clerk.

February 1st, 1840.—Met at the school house, had a precious time, the brethren and sisters appeared to be at peace, and the Lord seems to bless us by his presence; praise his name. Isaac Chase, Church Clerk.

But we will leave the experiences of this blessed people, who for a period of ten years had been holding meetings in the school house and at their several homes. Ten years have passed and gone with their joys and sorrows, still their faces were turned Zionward and they still looked to God for a blessing.

February 15th, 1844.—Met for the first time in our new chapel for fellowship meeting; a very comfortable building, well finished, 33 by 50 feet, without galleries. Had a comfortable time. We have been attending meetings in our new chapel since the 3d of January, with little intermission; some souls have been converted.

Elder Badger has given us some of the best sermons ever listened to in the latter days. Isaac Chase, Church Clerk.

This building I have just recited we all remember, the old cobble stone church on the Town Line. What love and admiration we all had for it, not for the beauty of its architecture and design, but for the blessed soul-inspiring and God-fearing times we had within its walls; here many of us, with our children, first found the light and learned to walk with the blessed Christ.

Right here let me relate one experience Bro. J. D. Chase and myself had in soliciting funds for our new church; one of our elderly sisters said, "I don't know; the old stone church is a blessed place to me; it is home and I should hate to see it torn down."

PARMA AND GREECE CHRISTIAN CHURCH, NEW YORK.
Dedicated November 22, 1903.

But enough of the old church. We will turn to the new and what led up to the building of the present temple of worship in which we are met at this time to dedicate to the service of God.

We feel within us great joy and triumph after the many sacrifices on the part of all of us. We believe we have met here together for one and the same purpose; that we may rejoice in this new and beautiful temple on this occasion, this November morning. We had realized for a long time that the old church was not what the congregation needed both as to room and convenience; many were the plans for enlarging and beautifying the same, such as taking out the old gallery in the east end of the church and building a vestibule in front; another of building a session room to the north, opening into the main room. Committees were appointed to get plans and probable cost of these additions. None of them seemed to meet the needs of the society. The greatest need seemed to be a place to hold our donations and social meetings of the church. At the annual fellowship meeting, January 3, 1903, after much discussion, it was decided to see what could be done about building a new church; the ball was set rolling, a committee was elected to circulate a subscription to see how members and people of the community felt as to the matter.

Educational Department.

REV. M. W. BAKER, Springfield, Ohio.
Secretary for Education American Christian Convention.

So far as the main facts regarding our schools are expressible numerically, they are set forth in the following table of statistics. The first effort at this compilation could be expected to secure only approximate figures. Conditions at the various schools differ so that values and classification of students can hardly be computed by a common standard. The figures, however, are sufficient to serve as the basis of interesting study regarding each school and our combined educational work.

The value of our entire educational plant, property and endowment is seen to be nearly $700,000, a sum about one-third the reported value of all our meeting houses. This fact should impress the importance of our educational interests, securing for them deserved recognition and needed support. No more earnest, consecrated efforts for Christ and his kingdom are made than in these schools.

No more permanent, safe, and far-reaching influences are exerted than from these centers of enlightenment and Christianization. The cause and these schools deserve our best effort and our heartiest support.

With perhaps no exception there is possibility for marked improvement, but these are the best schools we have or can have till we make them better. They need better equipment, better endowment, more practical courses, more loyal patronage and heartier general support.

We need a Christian workers' training school, offering standard courses for college graduates. This is our first and greatest educational need. If the removal of the Biblical Institute to Lakemont will do something toward this end, that removal should at the earliest possible time be consummated. The Institute should be preparing at least fifty well qualified students for home and foreign fields. Except we undertake seriously the general preparation of our ministers by providing the best courses possible, we may expect two results: Those who appreciate the need and are determined to have that preparation will secure it at other schools, and many of them will consequently work among other churches; our own dearth of prepared men will continue and increase while our pulpits remain vacant and our people hear the gospel once or twice a month, or as presented in other churches by men trained in thought as well as in sentiment—scholarly as well as Christian.

Another possibility of improvement lies in the way of such study of the English Bible as will acquaint the students of every department with its worth, its nature, its beauty and its power. To the Bible should be given no less careful and continued study than to the most favorite subject—science, arts, language or philosophy.

Elon requires Bible study of all college students. The literary and cultural value of the Scriptures appears from a systematic study of the various writings considered with reference to their characteristic setting, their historic origin, their primary purpose and their present message. Such study should lead the student to see and feel that Christ's teaching is superior and supreme. There is no curriculum that may not well be extended or modified to give place to Biblical literature.

The table indicates that Palmer Institute—Starkey Seminary has the largest endowment, and that Elon realizes the greatest income from tuition. Defiance reports the largest number of students, but half these are in short courses—music, art or business, with many doing perhaps little or no work in the college proper. The Biblical Institute, Starkey Seminary and Franklinton are not organized to do regular college work, although Starkey's graduate work actually done covers the first year required at eastern colleges, falling short of our college courses by probably only two years' work. The six other institutions are in the same class and somewhere near equality in the grade of work done. The combined college endowment is $210,000, of which Union Christian reports the most or three-sevenths. Elon has the largest property valuation which, like that of Kansas Christian, is three times her endowment. Defiance also has property exceeding in value her endowment, while Union and Palmer each has an endowment more than double her property value. Weaubleau is working on the smallest endowment and Kansas on the least total income. Here the figures may be in error. It does not seem that eight teachers can give their time for an average income of $108. Palmer ranks second in endowment and reports the most teachers in proportion to present number of students. The part of the income realized from tuition is from one-third at Union to five-sixths at Weaubleau. Palmer and Elon have about two-thirds of their income from tuition, and Defiance a little less than half. The endowment reported from Union, Palmer and Defiance was probably not all productive during the past year.

About one-third of the total income of nearly $50,000 is from tuition. With only half as many students reported, Palmer has a tuition income a half larger than Defiance, and with fewer students Elon has almost double the tuition income of Union.

Taking the attendance of the fall term as the average for the year, the average annual cost per student of conducting the schools is $80, of which the student pays in tuition $24. This leaves a balance of $56 per student as the average annual philanthropic expenditure of the schools. Thus it appears that the students pay not quite one-third of the cost of their schools' expenses. The greatest cost per student is at Christian Biblical Institute, where it reaches $384, no charges being made for tuition or rent. At Kansas it is $20 per student, and at Franklinton $16.

The endowment was increased the past year by $73,000 or about 20 per cent. The increase during the past five years has been six-fold. Within the same time the property value has about doubled. These schools should now offer such courses, instruction and advantages as to double their enrollment.

An Industrial School would be a great blessing to the colleges of the Central West or West, and is an imperative need for Franklinton. There is every reason why those expecting to work the farms or follow the trades, as well as those preparing for the professions, should have the privileges of college training, including those subjects immediately helpful in their life work. There is also every reason why those having a mind to study and to work, but lacking money, should be given the opportunity to study and to earn their support, at the same time becoming proficient in the art of their life work.

With these needs before them, persons of means and generosity are invited to investigate the business management of our schools, make sure bequests will be safely and well invested, and claim for themselves during their life the great blessing of giving to a worthy cause.

The course of study for ministers and other Christian workers, the formulation of which was requested by the Convention, will be completed and published soon. Thirty-five conferences have responded through their officers, giving statistics, suggestions and outlines of courses now used. There is a general desire for more extended, thorough and systematic training. In thirty-five conferences reporting regarding the education of their ministers, the number of ministers is 805, the college graduates are 69, or about one in twelve, and those having some preparation above the common schools are 436, or slightly more than half the entire number. These figures are only approximate. Some have reported as college bred all having finished any course at college or having received honorary degrees, while others restricted the number to those actually completing college courses leading to degrees.

One-third of the conferences have no college graduates in the ministry, and one reporting eighteen ministers has none with preparation above the common school grades. One conference with twenty-three ministers has thirteen college men and only one lacking training above the grades.

A number of conferences have no definite educational standards. A few require teachers' license or common school certificate of graduation. Some require a high school course, or its equivalent. Others make the Biblical Institute course the standard. Several ask from one to four years' prescribed study, while a few make two years' college work a prerequisite. The standard in the conferences of the Southern Christian Convention is a college course or equivalent preparation.

The convention course should be required in whole or in part where a higher standard is not already used. It is hoped that the course will so commend itself to those already in the ministry and to local workers that it may be a means of general help.

For most of the college statistics in the table and for other suggestions, I am indebted to Prof. D. B. Atkinson, Educational Secretary of the Indiana State Conference.

Educational Secretary A. C. C.

Christian Endeavor Statistics of the Christian Church, Jan. 1, 1904.

COMPILED BY HORACE MANN, C. E. SECRETARY FOR THE A. C. C.

In recording the numerical strength of the Christian Endeavor Societies of the Christian Church I wish to say that I have asked only for the number of societies and active members of both Senior and Junior Societies. While there are many things that we might like to know concerning the work accomplished by the various societies, yet as a rule it doesn't pay to ask too many questions of secretaries and clerks, or you will get answers from but a few. After a vast amount of correspondence, sometimes writing four and five times to a conference, I have secured reports from 44 conferences. To say that your secretary feels extremely pleased that so many have answered his request for C. E. statistics is putting it mildly! I personally thank all who have in any way tried to assist me in securing these reports and thus helping me in preparing the following report which, I presume, gives a fair idea of our numerical strength:

Christian Church, Sandusky, Iowa, Dedicated August 29, 1903.

The church was organized by Elder John McMillen in September, 1858. Brother McMillen is now living at Winterset, Iowa, and is in his eighty-seventh year.

The charter members of the church were: Henry H. Wilson, and Margaret Wilson, Isaac Nation and Hannah Nation, Wm. Graham and Mary Graham, Eliza Vanausdall and Cornelius Vanausdall, John McKinney and Bashaba McKinney, Andrew Keithler and Wm. B. Wilson, Rev. Elijah Williamson.

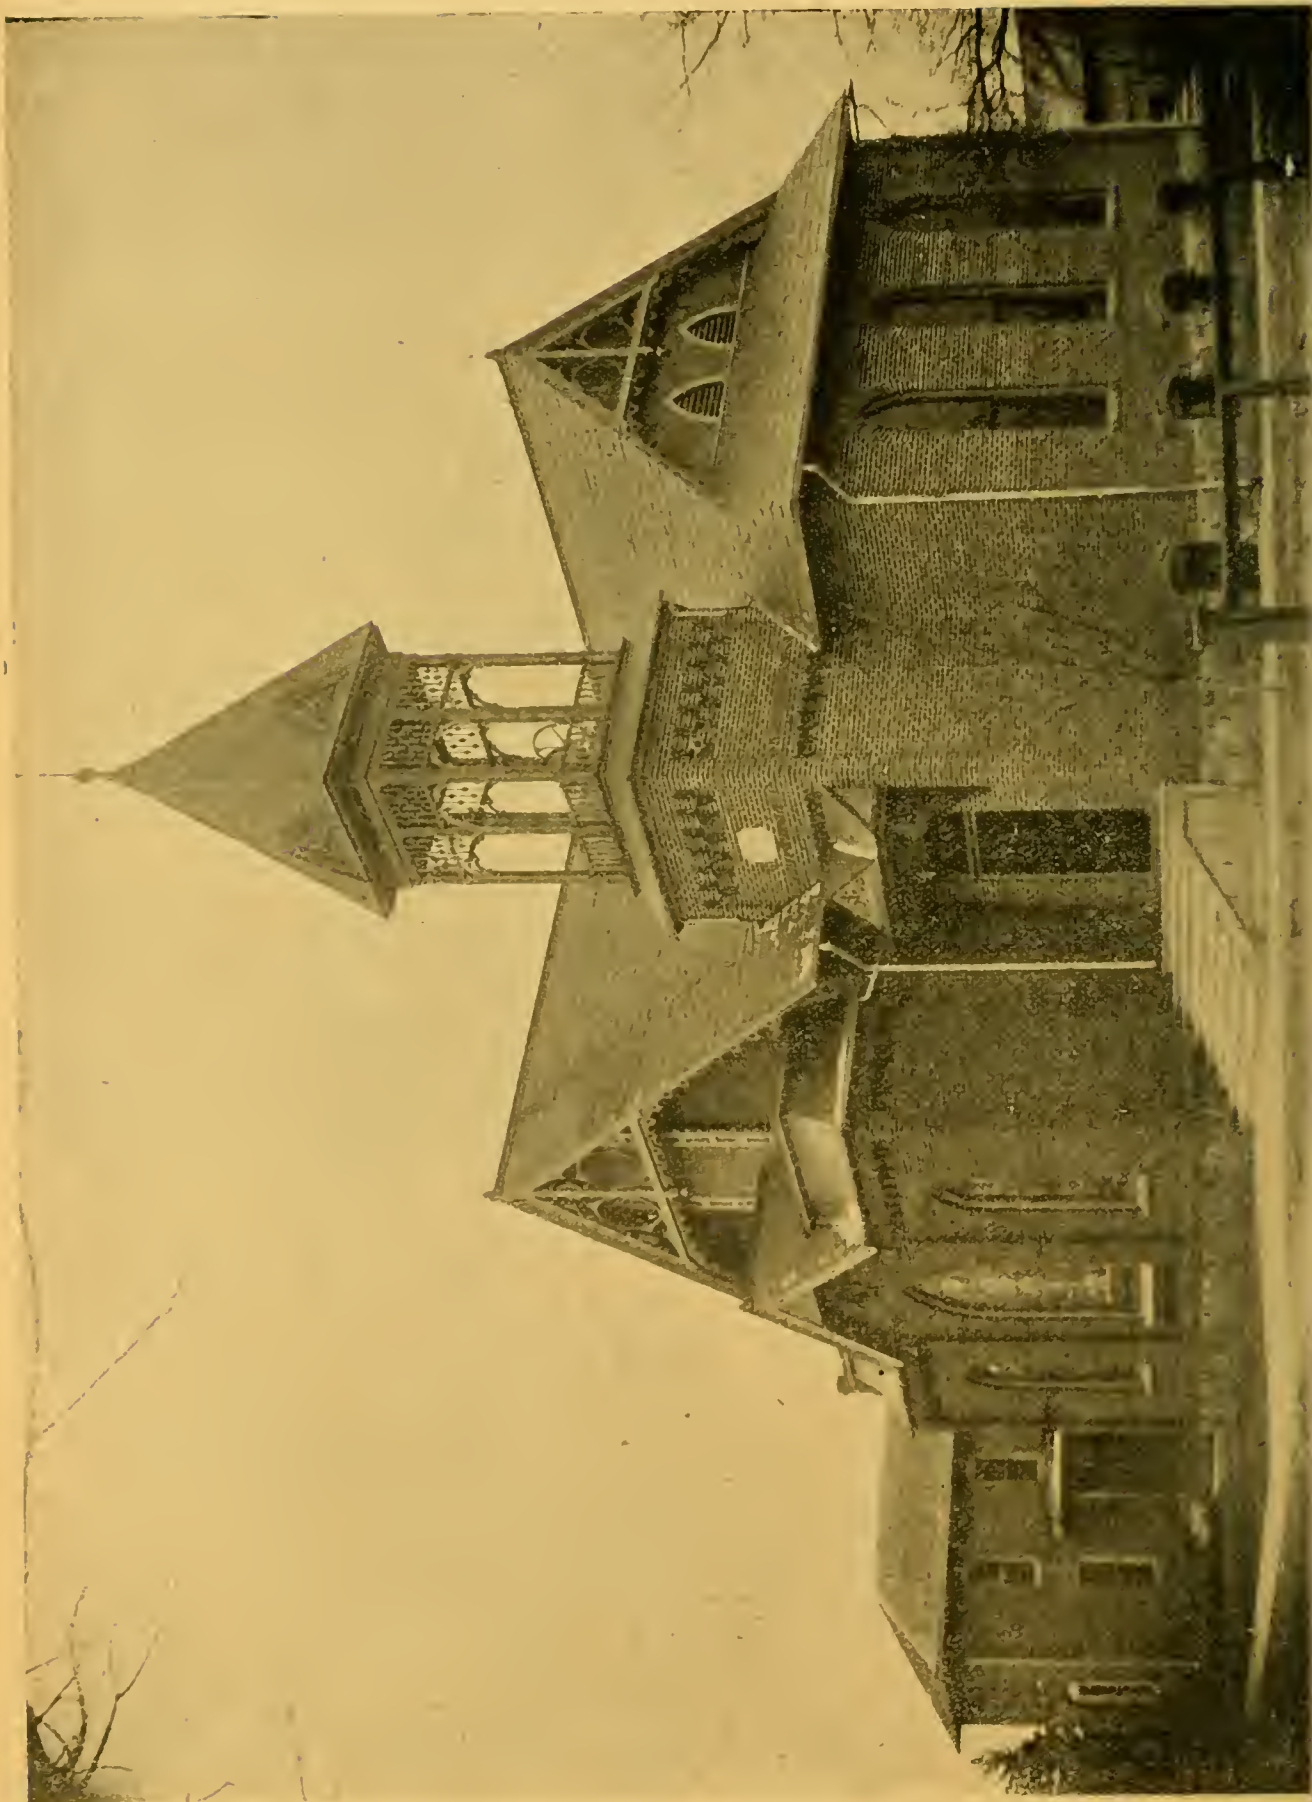

The following ministers have been pastors: Elijah Williamson, James Williamson, L. Fordyce, J. L. Towner, J. E. Amos, George Phillips, D. M. Helfenstein, E. Sage, —

Carr, — Nelson, and the present pastor Elisha Rhodes.

As Wise As Some Others.

Johnny's father was a physician, and his uncle a medical student. Johnny drank in their long words with a thirst for more. When his teacher, before whom he wished to shine, asked him to name some important parts of the body, Johnny smiled radiantly. "You don't mean legs or arms or heads," said Johnny, eagerly. "I know you don't, Miss Brown. You mean what father and Uncle Jim talked about—the interior and the exterior and the backterior."—Christian Register.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH AND PARSONAGE, ARGOS, INDIANA.

REV. E. C. KLINK.

Rev. E. C. Klink began his work at Argos, Indiana, September, 1903, and found a debt of $1,900 which the congregation had been carrying a long time. Brother Klink inspired confidence in his people, raised the money, and November 29, 1903, a Jubilee and Praise Service was held, and the notes burned in the presence of a large and appreciative congregation.

Where are Your Sheaves?

BY REV. J. P. WATSON, EDITOR S. S. LITERATURE.

The chief question that will be asked the minister of Jesus Christ in the last day, will be, "Where are your sheaves?" He himself will little incline to boast of his large audiences, his important stations, his multitude of friends, his great learning, his wide travels, his highly complimented sermons—all these would be considered as but means to a higher end. What results come of these great opportunities and splendid abilities? What have you to show as the fruits of these high possessions? these great advantages?

"Where are your sheaves?" Whom have you saved? Who are here with you, who, by your help, have climbed the battlements of heaven? Look this vast throng of redeemed souls in their faces, and say, whom of them all, has your wisdom, your devotion brought to the gates of glory? You were sent to save men, to win souls from death! Have you done that—the thing you were sent to do? Then blessed are ye of God! Then thou hast done well! Then the eternal praises that shall be your Lord's will be doubly sweet to you, for your services have helped to inspire the song.

A faithful preaching of the Word, a service of Christian love in tears and humility and faith, will certainly win souls from sin. God's Word burning on our lips, warmed into flame by his Spirit in our hearts, cannot fail in saving the perishing. The aged minister nearing his end, looking back, sees little else to rejoice over but the souls he may have helped to save.

Sunday-school Secretary American Christian Convention

Report of the Sunday-school Secretary of the American Christian Convention.

To the Sunday-school Workers:

DEAR FELLOW-LABORERS:—I could well wish that I had a telephone connection with each one of our 1500 (more or less) Sunday-school superintendents or secretaries; but in the absence of this, my best medium of communication is through the denominational publications; hence my message to you in this form.

I am not sure that every Sunday-school worker will see what I write at this time, but it should be so that every official member in a Christian Church should read the annual messages and reports of their denominational officers, and thus keep in touch with the centers of life and interest, for without such contact and communication our fellowship is only in name, and our denominational life is lacking that vitality which comes of the close and sympathetic touch of part with part.

I must confess that it has seemed to me that our Sunday-school workers were somewhat unresponsive to the suggestions already made, but if the cause of this apparent indifference is in the fact that our local workers do not read our literature, and thus are out of reach of the pens of the denominational officers, the wrong is even more radical, but we may readily see where the remedy lies.

Another remedy for existing ills will be found in the appointment of Sunday-school secretaries in all the conferences, whose well-defined duty it shall be to keep in close touch with the Convention Sunday-school Secretary on the one hand, and the local Sunday-school Secretaries on the other.

A practical suggestion on this line comes to us with the report of State Sunday-school Secretary Coy of Indiana, as follows:

"We would suggest that a Secretary of Sunday-schools be appointed and retained in each conference as long as possible, that they may correspond with the State Secretary, and the State Secretary with the A. C. C. Secretary of Sunday-schools, that we may in the future get a complete report." We have already urged this upon the conference officials, but so far only about one-half of the conferences have acted in harmony with this suggestion. This seems to be a first step in the right direction. Why not take it now?

I find that some of our conferences do not gather Sunday-school statistics. Brethren, this is a mistake. We have no more important branch of our church work than that which pertains to Bible study and religious education. If we do not know what we are doing on that line we are about fifty years behind the times.

I have sent out circular letters and blank forms to sixty-six Conference Secretaries, Sunday-school Secretaries, and other officers, and thus far have received reports from twenty-five of them.

I wish to thank the brethren and sisters for their promptness and unexceptional courtesy in reply.

These twenty-five conferences report 486 Sunday-schools, with 34647 members; they also report $16,266.39 raised for all purposes by the Sunday-schools. In some of the conferences all the schools are "Evergreen," while in others, but half of them hold sessions twelve months in the year.

Not all our schools use the publications of the C. P. A., while some use these and others with them. We should be glad of such patronage for our own publications as would make possible some advance steps in that line. Some improvements have already been proposed, and others may be. Our people are not likely to be pioneers in a new departure in this direction, but we should soon provide at least a "Beginner's Course" for the primary grade which will recognize the best principles of psychology and pedagogy.

Sunday-school extension should engage the thought and effort of our conference and local workers. The Sunday-school is available as a pioneer institution in church extension, and many of the strong churches of the land were started in Sunday-schools. The Home Class is often available as an entering wedge in a community not supplied with religious privileges. The Cradle Roll establishes a sympathetic relation between the home and the school.

Your Secretary would be glad to be in closer touch with all the Sunday-school workers, and especially with the different conferences through an officer appointed to that end.

If we know the needs of the different localities we can do more to supply them.

Shall we not make the NEW YEAR new by doing something new in it, and by doing some of the old things in a new and better way.

Respectfully yours,

THOS. S. WEEKS,

REV. G. B. GARNER, Lima, Ohio.

The first Sunday in January, 1901, Rev. George B. Garner preached the first sermon in the assembly room of the court house, looking towards the establishing of a Christian Church in Lima. One month later he organized what is known as the First Christian Church of Lima, with fifty charter members. The question of a lot suitable to build on was soon discussed, but how to secure such a lot in the heart of the city was no small proposition. God put it into the heart of Sister Mary Howard, a most godly woman, that now was the time for God to use her to his glory and to bless humanity. Through her attorney she purchased a lot two squares southwest from the public square, and gave it to the church. Sunday, November 22, 1903, at 2.30 p. m., the cornerstone was laid with appropriate services. The building completed will cost from $12,000 to $14,000.

A group of rustics was admiring a stylish motor car in the village street, and the motorist was explaining its principles. "What's the stoof as drives 'er along, mister?" inquired one. "Petroleum, my man: it's petroleum that's the propelling fosce," was the reply. "Lawks-a-mussy!" said the querist, "Did ye 'eer thot, Garge? It's petroleum as prurpels 'er." "Ho, indeed," said Garge, disdainfully, "that ain't nuthin' oot o' the common. It were petroleum as prurpelled oor Mary Hann right through the kitchen door, and banded 'er opp agen the barn. She troid to light the f ire wi' it."—Golden Penny.

Devotion.

BY THOMAS MOORE.

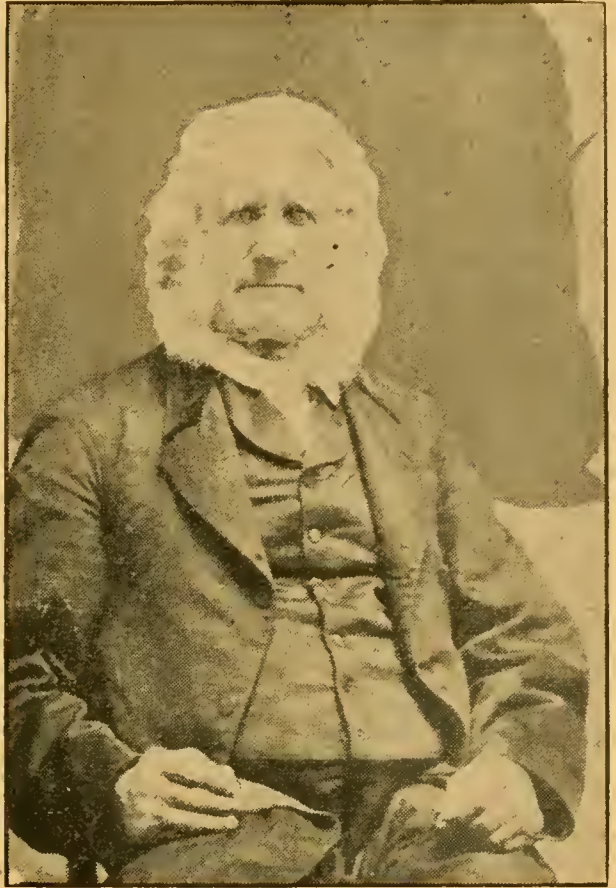

As down in the sunless retreats of the ocean
 Sweet flowers are springing no mortal can see,
 So, deep in my soul the still prayer of devotion,
 Unheard by the world, rises silent to thee,
 My God! silent to thee—
 Pure, warm, silent to thee.

As still to the star of its worship, though clouded,
 The needle points faithfully o'er the dim sea,
 So, dark as I roam, in this wintry world shrouded,
 The hope of my spirit turns trembling to thee,
 My God! trembling to thee—
 True, fond, trembling to thee.

REV. A. R. HEATH.

Rev. A. R. Heath, of Covington, Ind., has been a minister of the gospel for over forty years. His experience has convinced him that if all the various Christian bodies would unite their efforts on the basis of the few broadly essential principles upon which all are really agreed, ignoring minor differences upon unessential details, it would result in a wonderfully rapid spiritualization of human thought and consequent advancement of the race toward an understanding of the true status of mankind.

ELDER SAMUEL PENROD.

Elder Samuel Penrod was born in Pennsylvania, March 4, 1800, and died March 9, 1879. He was a pioneer preacher; "was of stalwart frame, fiery zeal, heroic endurance and largely gifted in voice and song." He lived near Oran, Ohio, and preached for churches in Darke, Shelby, and Miami Counties. His son, Rev. N. W. Penrod, is living at Oran.

Honesty the Best Policy.

The folly of dishonesty in business matters is very clearly set forth by Senator Chauncey M. Depew, one of America's most successful men, in a recent interview. Every young man in the land would do well to study this remarkably interesting and weighty paragraph. Senator Depew says that he has seen many men become wealthy through dishonest methods, and his experience with them has taught him this: "That most men who gain wealth dishonestly if they live long enough, get poor again." It is almost an invariable rule, and it is reasonable enough if you stop to figure it out. For it comes about in this way: A man employs dishonest methods and yet he becomes very wealthy. All his constituents know that his career is just a little bit shady as regards business methods, but he sails serenely along until a crucial moment arrives, a moment when "Money! Ready money! Cash at any price!" is the cry of the maddened brokers. Then he finds his Waterloo. The credit which he might have obtained, the confidence of reliable, reputable firms which he might have commanded, are not forthcoming. His reputation for shady dealings, his ability to slip out of tight places, his deftness at evading technicalities of ordinary business methods, all cause the firms who would have otherwise come to his assistance to steer clear of such a trickster as he is known to have been—and he goes to the wall. Senator Depew further declares that the cynical proverb, "Be good and you'll be happy, but you won't have a good time," may sound very smart and elicit rounds of applause, but it is a fallacy through and through. This distinguished man out of his vast experience has come to this final conclusion: "It is easier, much easier, for an honest man to become wealthy than for his dishonest brother who may seem to prosper for a time; but, mark my words, it is only a temporary success."—Current Anecdotes.

"Aunt Hitty" Aldrich Celebrates Her Birthday.

On top of the Green Mountains, now white with snow, at Shrewsbury, Vermont, "Aunt Hitty" Aldrich has just celebrated her ninety-first birthday.

Mehitable Colburn, daughter of Moses Colburn, was born December 16, 1812. She married Eleazer Warner Aldrich, March 30, 1835. Two daughters and three sons were born to them. Although the eldest daughter died in 1854, in her early girlhood, the grief is still fresh in the mother's heart. Mr. Aldrich died in 1873, and "Aunt Hitty" lived with the younger daughter, who had married and lived on the farm. In 1880 their daughter died, leaving her the third time bereft, heartbroken, and very lonely, but still sustained by her deep-rooted Christian Faith.

Two sons are still living. The eldest, born on her thirty-fifth birthday, always celebrates the anniversary with her.

Mrs. Aldrich is "Aunt Hitty" to all her friends, whether related by ties of blood or not. She always lived a very active life till, some six years ago she became partially paralyzed. It was a great trial to give up home duties. She now lives with her niece, who is almost a daughter, Miss Quincy Wheeler, in Shrewsbury, the same town in which she was born and has always lived.

There is a goodly amount of linen in the family spun and woven by "Aunt Hitty" in her youth, much of it before marriage.

Despite considerable deafness, she keeps well informed on subjects of interest in the family, town, and matters of public import. She reads a great deal, being especially interested in religious matters, politics, and all national affairs. She has taken the HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY for over sixty years, always reads it faithfully, and would not know what to do without it. Its opinions always have weight with her, and each number, after being read, is passed on to some friend. On each birthday she says to her son and scribe, "You must send my subscription to the HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY. I cannot get along without it."

She has a remarkable memory, and is highest authority in the family on dates and events.

She has always been an active member in the Christian Church, doing always all in her power to advance its cause.

Each summer she makes a round of visits to relatives and friends, which she enjoys with the zest of a child, and is planning a more extensive itinerary for next summer. Always bright and cheery to meet, an interesting conversationalist, her parting message is always to all, "Be Good," and to all who read this the writer feels assured she would say just this. "Be Good."

In choosing a school we naturally take into account various qualities; and no single institution may properly lay claim to a monopoly of educational excellence. Institutions, however, like persons, have individual characteristics, a history peculiarly their own.

U. C. College has behind it a record of more than forty years. The school is no longer an experiment. Hundreds of her representatives are now filling honorable and lucrative positions of service in almost every calling in life. Merit wins in the end, and the college has studiously tried in all her history to deserve a fair share of patronage. Speaking for the management I desire to thank the many donors and earnest workers whose co-operation during the past two years particularly, has made the outlook bright by opening a large field for expansion, and we trust, also, of efficiency. The greatest present need is more students.

We confidently affirm that the cost of sound instruction and living at Merom is much lower than in the larger towns and more wealthy institutions. We aim to give the poor boy or girl a chance for the best things in college life and discipline.

The religious life of our young people should be wisely and naturally directed. Man is a moral as well as a physical and intellectual being, and the institution that fails to provide food for the spiritual life is failing in the most vital element of sound training. Mere ethics, as a philosophy, is not enough; we need to touch the inner springs of the religious life; imparting, by example, the Christian motive. This is the one safeguard—the true ideal—of education. This element belongs to every great school, whether the students are few or many.

The Christian College is the best place in this world to prepare for a well rounded life and hence a true success.

In the opinion of able educators Union Christian College is favorably located. The town is quiet, healthful, moral. A residence community surrounded by excellent farms; an abundance and extensive variety of fruit; and, although about two miles from Merom Station, on the Illinois Central railroad, has good gravel roads and telephone and telegraph privileges. No licensed saloons nor gambling dens. Athletic grounds and a wholesome spirit of recreation give zest to outdoor exercise.

The Churches and Christian Associations maintain regular religious services. The Literary Societies afford excellent practice in oratory and debate. The Lecture association, composed of the faculty, students and citizens, provides for the ablest speakers and entertainers to be had through the lecture bureaus.

The school trains teachers, lawyers, doctors and farmers as well as preachers. There is no caste or creed to hinder a full and free pursuit of study in any line of honorable scholarship.

The larger number of students thus far, have become teachers. Many have taken up courses leading to the practice of law and medicine. Some have prepared for business, some for farming, and still others for the distinctly literary professions—like journalism.

Christian Biblical Institute,

STANFORDVILLE, N. Y.

This is the Theological School and Ministerial Training School of the religious body known as "Christians," instituted under the action of the American Christian Convention taken in 1866.

THE PRIMARY DESIGN of the founders of the school was to aid in preparation for their own ministry; but it is open to well-accredited Christians who desire to prepare for the ministry or other gospel work, without regard to sex, age, or denominational preferences. Its desire is to help build up the kingdom of Christ in any way it can best be done.

Its theological "standard" is the Bible. Hence the object of the school is primarily and chiefly the study of the Bible, especially the New Testament, believing that from this source the preacher draws his best preparations for his work. Its courses of study are arranged with reference to this.

of the school are light. It aims to bring its privileges within the reach of all by offering its tuition and the use of its very pleasant, furnished rooms free of charge, and by bringing board and other expenses to the lowest figure consistent with wise economy. The entire expenses of a school year, including heat and books, need not be above $85 or $100.

DEFIANCE COLLEGE,

DEFIANCE, OHIO.

President of Defiance College.

Defiance College was chartered by the Legislature of the state of Ohio and under the privileges of the charter, the maintenance of a college, Christian in character and spirit is the chief end to be sought. It must forever stand for the development of Christian character. The outlook for the institution was never so bright as now. The city of Defiance made a proposition to the Ohio State Christian Association to give at least $10,000 toward a permanent endowment fund, to build Portland cement walks around campus, to put in water and sewerage, and to pay street assessments for paving the street in front of the college, on condition that Prof. McReynolds assume the management of the school and that the Ohio State Christian Association pay into the treasury of Defiance College on or before September 23, 1904, the $15,000 endowment fund in their hands. The proposition was accepted, the money has been raised, and the college has an endowment of over $26,000. We believe that this is only an earnest beginning of what shall follow. The enrollment already shows a gain of more than thirty-five per cent over last year. This is considered remarkable in view of the fact that last year was one of the most prosperous in the history of the institution. The college never had a more competent or conscientious faculty. The college has been endorsed by the State Associations of Michigan, Indiana and Ohio, and the entire plant was turned over to a new Board of Trustees, a majority of which were nominated by the Ohio State Association, some time before June 1, 1903. The plant consists of a building valued at $35,000, a beautiful campus of ten acres, and an athletic field of thirteen acres. The building is a Queen Anne structure, modern, commodious and convenient. The college site is one of the best in the state of Ohio. Defiance is an important commercial center with ten thousand inhabitants, three railroads, a proposed inter-urban line, two majestic rivers and one of the most beautiful Chautauqua resorts in the United States. It is located in the heart of a growing agricultural community that is awakening to the needs of Christian education. The college embraces academic and collegiate courses of study, besides a Teachers' College, School of Commerce, School of Music, School of Oratory, School of Fine Arts and a Divinity School. The college is more free from competition than the average institution.

PALMER COLLEGE,

LE GRAND, IOWA.

The college maintains the following complete courses :

Classical,	Scientific,	Academic,	Biblical,
Normal,	Commercial,	Musical,
	Art.

During the past year the College has received additional endowment that has enabled the managers to increase the efficiency of the school. Many general improvements have been made, while special attention is to be given to each department.

Professional teachers, who are specialists, have been secured, and will devote all their time to the work of their departments.

It is the aim to give thorough instruction at a minimum expense ; and to anticipate the needs of those whose early education has been neglected.

The teachers take a personal interest in each student, and give individual help both in and out of the class room.

Palmer College is located in the middle West in a beautiful country and healthful climate.

No school in the West can offer equal advantages at a lower cost to the student.

Students have spent the entire year in school at a cost not to exceed ninety dollars, and they have been able to earn a large part of this. One need not, even with a very liberal expenditure, exceed one hundred and twenty-five dollars per year.

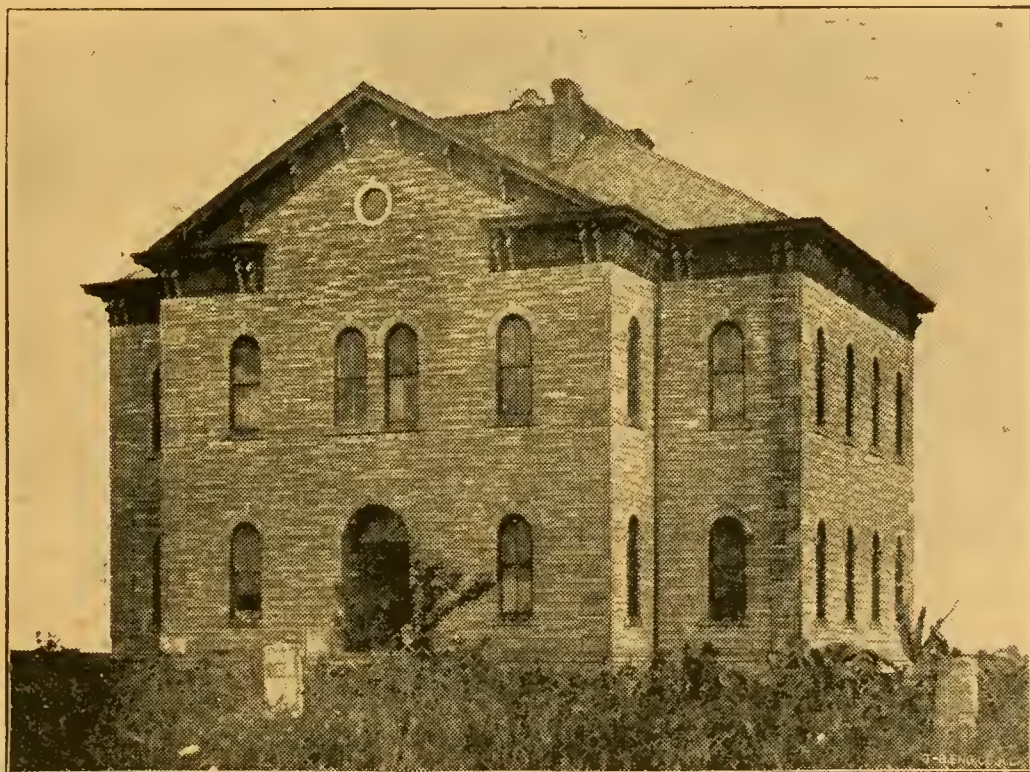

Our students are admitted to Chicago University and other institutions for post-graduate work without examination.

Carlyle Summerbell, A. M., President.

Harry Haas, M. S., Secretary of Faculty.

Kansas Christian College

LINCOLN, KANSAS.

The following extract is taken from an article written by one of our County Superintendents and published in one of our leading local papers: "This is an institution run upon a strictly business basis, by a man whose appreciation of his responsibility is both acute and judicious. Those whose ambition is to cover ground superficially or to dawdle away time by ostensibly studying while their minds are occupied with useless reading, or worse than useless flirtations, will find themselves in hot water from the beginning of the time they enter Kansas Christian College until they take their useless selves to some other field of action. * * * They will find a school not so large but that every student has the personal attention of the faculty; and that attention is cultured, conscientious and infinitely painstaking.

"The normal and business courses of this institution are first-class. When I say 'first-class' I mean first-class, and do not use the word as a half meaningless and perfunctory recommendation."

Address,

O. B. WHITAKER, A. M., Ph.D., President.

Franklinton College,

FRANKLINTON, N. C.

The college is dependent on its friends for financial support. If it could be suitably equipped for its work, and placed on a firm basis, its usefulness would be increased many fold. A few friends to the institution have remembered it in their bequests, and it is hoped that many others will.

Those who have money to leave, or what would be better, to give now, would do a lasting and immeasurable good, by contributing generously to Franklinton Christian College.

In connection with the New York State Christian Association a new incorporation has been effected, known as the New York State Christian Convention, embracing the same territory. Its officers are the same as the Association's officers.

New York State Conference.

Organization.

The elders and brethren of the Christian denomination in the state of New York having for several years obviously discovered the necessity of regularity and order among them as a people, and especially as respects the ministry, sensibly feeling the sad and disagreeable effects of imposition by those who say they are Apostles and are not; and the want of an understanding between the preachers and also the different churches; at length, after several consultations together of several of them and making inquiry of others, and learning their minds and that they generally were united in this one thing, at length by some general information it was communicated through the state among the preachers and churches that it was best for as many as could conveniently attend, to assemble together at some place and consult together for the general good of the connection through the state.

A general meeting being appointed to be holden at Hartwick, Otsego County, in September, 1818, it was concluded most proper at that time to assemble as many as could, and after the close of the general meeting to assemble in conference and there confer together.

This information being given the meeting and conference were attended, the minutes of which are as follows:

Assembled at Hartwick, on the 26th of September, 1818, the following elders, viz: Samuel P. Allen, Joseph Badger, Jabez King, William Cummings, John P. Teats, Benj. Howard, William Hurlburt, Willett Stillman, and several unordained preachers, with a number of brethren, to confer on things relative to the cause of Christ in the state of New York.

The first two days were spent in the public worship of God, in which several interesting discourses were delivered, which appeared quickening and satisfactory, to an attentive audience.

On Monday morning, the 28th, assembled in Conference:

1st. Chose Samuel P. Allen to preside in this Conference as chief speaker. Acts 14:12.

2d. Chose John Ross to officiate as scribe.

3d. The question was asked, Who shall compose this Conference? And agreed, That it be composed of elders, preachers, and brethren, whose characters, after due examination, should be proved good.

4th. Proceeded to examine and receive those present who felt interested in the common cause of the Redeemer, and thus the Conference was organized.

LEVI J. WILKINSON,

Who gave the money to build the Cynthiana, Indiana, Christian Church, one of the most modern in architecture, with a seating capacity of about 800 people. Besides the auditorium and Sunday-school rooms which can be thrown together, it has a ladies' parlor, pastor's study and a baptistry. The basement has a reception room, two dining-rooms and a kitchen. This is one of the gifts of Brother and Sister Wilkinson as a token of their love for the cause of the Christian Church. They believe in having the satisfaction of being administrators of their earthly estate, and have it go where they want it, and see it do good before they are called home.

Some of them I might have heard who went there, but can not remember just now. Mrs. R. H. Gott...

The Home Mission work of the convention as shown by the report of the Christian Missionary association at the meeting of the convention at Asheboro, N. C., is in successful operation. The Association maintains two General Missionaries in its bounds. As regards Foreign Missions, it is believed there is a steady growth of interest.

The officers of the Christian Missionary Association are: Rev. J. O. Atkinson, President. Elon College, N. C.; Rev. J. W. Johnson, Secretary, Suffolk, Va. The Association meets at Franklin, Va., Tuesday after the first Sunday in December, 1903. The report of the Committee on Schools and Colleges, made at the Convention at Asheboro, N. C., shows the indebtedness of Elon College to be about $6,000, and the endowment $26,056.25. That the churches composing the Convention pay a fixed sum annually, $1,800 for Elon College. Thus the College is freed from embarrassment as to its future progress. Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., is president of the college and its financial affairs are entrusted to him. The college was painted inside and out the past summer.

The Convention has also inaugurated plans for an orphanage, for which considerable funds have already been contributed. Its location was placed in the hands of the following committee: Rev. W. S. Long, D. D., Rev. J. L. Foster and W. J. Lee, Esq. Rev. J. L. Foster, Raleigh, N. C., is secretary of the committee and authorized agent of this fund.

The Convention at its last session authorized the publication of a word edition of the Christian Hymnary, permission having been obtained from the Christian Publishing Association. A committee was appointed to prepare other literature.

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY—1904

Note.—The following is a list of names and post-office addresses of the ministers of the Christian Church as far as they could be obtained. As changes are constantly occurring, we can aim only to give the roll as it stands at the date of publication. It is almost complete, and is as accurate as our Conference Secretaries could make it. The reports of the Secretaries are relied upon as official. Every Conference Secretary should send us a complete and accurate directory of his Conference not later than November 1 of each year. Ministers receiving transfers are considered members of the Conferences granting the transfers until reported as having been received into other Conferences. Conference membership appears in parenthesis after each name. The abbreviations made necessary for each will be readily understood. If any minister's name is omitted he should notify the Secretary of his Conference, thereby avoiding its omission in next year's directory.
